Re: United States v. Roy M. Cohn, John A.
Kiser, John F. Curtin, Bernard Reicher
69 Cr. 55

Dear Mr. Malone:

The Court in the above captioned case has ordered the Government to make available to defendants Roy M. Cohn, John A. Kiser and John F. Curtin copies of all "statements" and "confessions" of said defendants.

The Court has defined "statements" and "confessions" to include:

"any writing signed by [defendant] and any record made in writing or by any electric, electronic, mechanical, photographic or other means, of any words uttered by him; 'statements' and 'confessions' do not include any analysis, interpretation, summary, impression, or paraphrase made by government agents of words uttered by defendant; 'statements' and 'confessions' do not include 'reports, memoranda, or other internal government documents' ... except such parts thereof as purport to reproduce the exact words used by defendant ..."

NY POST TUESDAY 6/24/69

Cohn Denies Role in Transfer Of 3 FBI Agents in Probe

Attorney Roy M. Cohn vehemently denied today that he had anything to do with the transfer of three FBI agents after they gave affidavits for the government in the bribe conspiracy case against him.

The agents had sworn that ex-convict Milton Pollack lied in his affidavit when he charged that U. S. Attorney Morgenthau asked Pollack to use electronic devices to get evidence against Cohn.

Cohn, former counsel to the Senate subcommittee headed by the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy, had presented Pollack's affidavit to Federal Judge Inzer B. Wyatt in an attempt to have the case thrown out.

Cohn had accused Morgenthau of conducting a "vendetta" against him but Wyatt denied all his motions earlier this month, setting Sept. 23 for the trial.

The three agents were transferred soon after their affidavits were filed. An article written by Peter Maas for New York magazine implied that the transfers resulted from Cohn's friendship with J. Edgar Hoover.

The financier and lawyer, whose troubles stemmed from the affairs of the Fifth Av. Coach Lines, termed that angle "pure baloney."

"The first time I heard of the whole thing was when it was printed," he said. "I never spoke to anyone about it."

The FBI and Morgenthau refused any comment after Wyatt ordered all those connected with the case to refrain from discussing it.

FBI Regulations

However, sources within the bureau indicated that the agents were transferred because they had violated FBI regulations requiring that all affidavits be cleared with the FBI in Washington before being filed.

Cohn, 41, and three other men were indicted in January on six counts of bribery, extortion, blackmail and conspiracy in connection with the city's takeover of the Fifth Av. Coach Lines' bus routes.

Cohn was a director of the company and his law firm represented it during that period.

Cohn also is under federal indictment charging conspiracy, mail and wire fraud, security violations and an alleged $75,000 bribery plot of a state court official.

FROM : SA [REDACTED], #53

SUBJECT: ROY M. COHN
INFORMATION CONCERNING

ReNYtel to Director, 6/24/69.

[REDACTED], Accounting and Fraud Section, telephonically contacted the NYO on 6/25/69, concerning COHN, KISER and CURTIN, and the letter received by the NYO concerning Mr. MORGENTHAU, USA, SDNY.

[REDACTED] stated that the NYO should do the following:

1. Advise Mr. MORGENTHAU that he should make his requests through the Department of Justice and the Department will further these requests to the Bureau.
2. Check all indices, general and electronic, for information concerning "statements and confessions" and "utterances" of the above three individuals. The information obtained should not be confined to instant case.

If the NYO finds information was received from other offices concerning COHN, KISER and CURTIS, the NYO should set leads to have that office review indices for information concerning statements, confessions and utterances.

A black and white photograph showing a dense forest scene. The image is filled with the silhouettes and textures of numerous trees and thick foliage, creating a complex, layered appearance. The lighting is somewhat uneven, with brighter patches where light hits the leaves and darker areas in the shadows of the trees. The overall composition is a horizontal view of a wooded area.

utterances. Should a lead for an auxiliary office be necessary to resolve whether an utterance by one of these three persons was made to a representative of the Bureau, such lead should be immediately and expeditiously handled.

In the event that statements, confessions, or other types of utterances by these three persons since 1/1/62 are found to be in your files, copies of such utterances should be made available to the Bureau or in the event that the Bureau already has copies as a result of communications submitted to the Bureau, the exact location of such utterances should be furnished. These instructions should also be furnished any auxiliary offices requested to resolve possession of such utterances. Upon completion of this review, the Department will be advised as to the results.

INFORMATION CONCERNING

Re Bureau airtel to New York, 6/26/69 and Bureau and New York telcalls, 6/27/69.

Enclosed are three (3) copies of FD 302 reflecting interview with [REDACTED] b7c

Chief AUSA SILVIO J. MOLLO, SDNY, was contacted by SA [REDACTED] on 6/27/69 in respect to the letter submitted by USA MORGENTHAU's Office, dated 6/19/69. |

Mr. MOLLO was contacted in the absence of AUSA JOHN S. ALLEE and USA MORGENTHAU, both of whom are on leave.

MOLLO stated that the request in this letter did not originate in his office; it originated on a motion by the defense which was objected to by the USA's Office. However, the court ruled that the request by the defense should be granted. The court then directed the USA's Office to communicate directly with the various federal agencies and obtain the desired information. On the basis of the foregoing, JOHN S. ALLEE, Executive Assistant, USA's Office, SDNY, sent similar letters to various federal agencies on 6/10/69.

Mr MOLLO therefore feels that he should not direct any requests in this matter to the Department.

A review of all files in the NYO, including electronic surveillance files, fails to reflect any interview or signed statement or letter received from ROY COH. or [REDACTED]

The files reveal one interview with [REDACTED] which was conducted at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. a copy
